

ALRIM Conference on 17 June 2015

“In the coming decade, our lives will be intensely shaped by transformative forces that are underway already”

The Luxembourg Association of Risk Management (“ALRiM”) is pleased to invite you to the conference organised with the participation of the World Economic Forum (“WEF”).

Ms Caroline Galvan, Economist with The Global Competitiveness and Risks Team at the World Economic Forum, will present the 2015 World Economic Forum’s annual Global Risks Report at the conference which will be held on:

17 June 2015 at 17:30 at the Hotel Sofitel

4, rue du Fort Niedergrünwald
Quartier Européen Nord - Luxembourg - Kirchberg.

Caroline Galvan will outline the purpose and methodology of the World Economic Forum’s Global Risks Report and explore:

- The Global Risks 2015 Landscape;
- The Global Risks 2015 Interconnections map.
- The Global Risks of Highest Concern short-term (18 months) versus long-term (10 years)
- Looking back 10 years: Where have we made progress?

The development of the global risks landscape from 2007 to 2015 will provide additional insight about the evolving nature of global risks.

The conference will close on the following topics:

- Global Risks Arising from the Accelerated Interplay between Geopolitics and Economics
- Engineering the Future: How Can the Risks and Rewards of Emerging Technologies Be Balanced ?
- The Luxembourg Executive Opinion Survey and Views of the Business Community on the Impact of Global Risks.

Considering the fact that ALRiM offers attendance to this important event free of charge, we invite you to register on the website of ALRiM (www.alrim.lu) as soon as possible. Registrations will be accepted on a “first register, first served” basis.

ALRiM is also pleased to invite all Members to its Annual General Meeting which will take place on 17 June 2015 at 16.30 at the Hotel Sofitel, 4, rue du Fort Niedergrünwald Quartier Européen Nord - Luxembourg - Kirchberg, in advance of the conference with the World Economic Forum. The Annual General Meeting will review the association’s yearly activity and financial reports. A formal invitation will follow separately to the Members of ALRiM.

Philippe Soler
Vice-President

Marco Zwick
President

- e n d s -

Please send any questions to ALRiM via the association's website: www.alrim.lu.

Notes to editors:

Caroline Galvan is an Economist with The Global Competitiveness and Risks Team at the World Economic Forum. She is the co-author of The Global Competitiveness Report and The Global Risks Report, two flagship publications of the World Economic Forum, and leads the work on The Africa Competitiveness Report and The Europe 2020 Competitiveness Report. Her areas of expertise include national competitiveness, economics of Europe and the Africa region, and risks and resilience. Prior to joining the Forum, she worked for a UK-based economic policy consultancy and the Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs of the European Commission. She holds an undergraduate degree in Economics from the University of Groningen and an MSc in Economics from the University of Tilburg, both in the Netherlands.

The World Economic Forum is an international institution committed to improving the state of the world through public-private cooperation. It engages political, business, academic and other leaders of society in collaborative efforts to shape global, regional and industry agendas. Together with other stakeholders, it works to define challenges, solutions and actions, always in the spirit of global citizenship. It serves and builds sustained communities through an integrated concept of high-level meetings, research networks, task forces and digital collaboration. It delivers unique value to its Partners, Members and Constituents through its Annual and Regional Meetings, its Centres dedicated to global, regional, and industry issues, its future-oriented communities of New Champions, its expert networks of Global Agenda Councils, its TopLink knowledge and interaction platform and the Forum Academy.

ALRiM is the Luxembourg Association for Risk Management. It has been dedicated to developing risk management in Luxembourg and internationally since its foundation on 1 July 1997 under the name of "PRiM". ALRiM is a non-profit organisation (association sans but lucratif), the members of which are professionals with an interest in risk management. ALRiM meets its objective through a variety of activities including:

- Organisation of conferences on risk management topics;
- Publication of a quarterly newsletter on risk management;
- Development and delivering of training courses on risk management, including a professional certification in risk management in the banking and fund industry;
- Assistance to candidates in order to prepare for the Financial Risk Manager (FRM) examination that is organized by the Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP).